

LIVE EVERY DAY AS
EARTH DAY

Please join the Friends of the
Dana Point Headlands
&
Dana Point Headlands
Conservation Area

EARTH DAY @ THE HEADLANDS

Saturday
April 25, 2020
10:00am-1:00pm at the

Nature Interpretive Center
34558 Scenic Drive
Dana Point, CA

FREE EVENT FOR ALL AGES

- LEARN ABOUT:
 - Dana Point Headlands & its endangered & rare species
 - Water quality & conservation
 - Recycling
 - Dana Point Native Americans through a "Journey to the Past"
- VIEW LOCAL:
 - Live birds of prey
 - Live snakes
 - Marine Mammals from the Whale Trail
- PARTICIPATE IN:
 - Native American basket weaving (Space limited, RSVP required)
RSVP Link www.fodph.org/events
 - Nature face painting
 - The Earth Day Scavenger Hunt
- FREE Giveaways! Including the OCCNPS "A Buckwheat in Every Garden" native plants

Limited parking will be available along
Scenic Drive and Green Lantern.

Skip the crowds and take advantage of the free parking in the Dana Strand
Beach parking lot at Pacific Coast
Highway and Selva Road (arrow).

The Interpretive Center can be reached by taking a beautiful 1/2 mile walk through the Dana Point Preserve accessible by the trailhead at the end of Selva Road.

Dogs allowed in the Nature Center parking lot on leash.

DOGS not allowed on trails.

Visit the Friends of the Dana Point Headlands website: www.fodph.org

