

West Durban focus for Ramblers

DURBAN Ramblers Hiking Club's coming weekend outings are focused on areas west of Durban.

On Saturday, 7 July, hikers will venture out to Crestholme with hike leader Colin.

Call him on 031-708-3517 about this 8km, grade two (moderate) outing which should take about two-and-a-half hours.

This walk across grasslands will take in expansive views of Inanda Dam. Hikers are to meet at 1.30pm at Jock's Café in Rainbow Drive, Crestview, to proceed to the private parking area. Drive east on Inanda Road from Waterfall, pass Crinkley Bottom, turn at the Crestholme signpost on the left and immediately left again.

On Sunday, 8 July, hikers will venture from Paradise Valley to Pavilion with hike leader Margie.

Confirm your attendance with her on 073-437-6915.

This grade three, 16km hike is a linear walk from Paradise Valley Reserve back to the Pavilion. Cars will be shuttled from the Pavilion.

Join in for drinks afterwards at the Pavilion. Reserve entry fee is R10.

Businesswomen from different sectors of the community came together to grow a culture of togetherness, empowerment and motivation on Thursday, 21 June at African Peninsula Guesthouse. Bluff Business Women's Network was founded on 12 June by Tas Chetty, owner of T Chetty and Associates Registered Bio-kineticists.

Sand sculptor Mzwakhe Mdletshe crafts a magnificent specimen to welcome visitors to the Whales Festival at Brighton Beach.

Cass da Silva was on hand to give the children rides in his mini fire engine at the Welcoming of the Whales Festival at Brighton Beach.

Stay up-to-date with your local news daily - go to www.southlandssun.co.za

Simone and Alaska Adams have fun with Colleen and Xandra-Leigh Parsons at the Welcoming of the Whales Festival at Brighton Beach, Saturday, 30 June.