

Steering committee governance

The steering committee is approved by the community, this is made up of MEF people and also community members, the roles are voted on and accepted by the community as a whole. It is inclusive and representative of all stakeholders with equal community representation,

Regular meetings are held where all members of the community should attend and everyone has a voice. Community Based Tourism is our model which is equitable and fair to all.